The season of Lent is upon us and for the next 40 days (excluding Sundays) we enter a season of prayer, fasting and self-examination. I really do not think the early church, as they formed the liturgical calendar and seasons, intended Lent to be an emotionally depressing time. However, our spiritual journeys are not complete without some understanding and experience of the radical love of God for us as expressed in the passion and death of Jesus.

We do not remember the pain and suffering of Jesus as some degree of morbid punishment for our sin. We remember the passion events to better understand the desire of God to reconcile all humanity and the limitless extent to which God was willing to go. No event more clearly expresses how precious you are to God than the passion of Jesus. It is not a pretty picture like a baby in a manger. It is a dark, harsh, cruel picture which reflects the worst of humanity but also the best of God. There is an old gospel hymn: Beneath the Cross of Jesus. The fourth verse talks of two wonders found there: the wonders of God's glorious love and my unworthiness. This is the message Lent; the grace and power of God to hold these two wonders together and by doing so change the world forever.

See you in worship,
Larry

40 Days of Prayer

Please join others in the MUMC congregation who will commit to praying daily for our DeSoto site. Weekly worship begins at DeUMC on Sunday, April 2. Will you include the congregation, ministries, outreach events and Agape House activities at DeUMC in your prayers during this season of Lent?

Prayer calendars will be distributed at worship services at MUMC on Feb 26, and will be available on the table at the north entrance to the Sanctuary throughout Lent.

The Library Corner: Lent and Easter

During Lent many people feel a need to study and reflect more deeply on the meaning of Jesus' life and sacrifice for us on the cross. If you are one of those people, here are a few resources from the church library.

Adult:

He Chose the Nails: What God did to Win Your Heart by Max Lucado

24 Hours That Changed the World by Adam Hamilton. Walk with Jesus on his final day. Follow him to the cross.

Final Words from the Cross, by Adam Hamilton. Book and Audio editions

The Passion of Jesus Christ: Fifty Reasons Why He Came to Die by John Piper

Children/ Youth:

Why is There a Cross by Kathleen Long Bostrom

Breakfast with Jesus by Mark Taylor

The Easter Story DVD; Greatest Adventure Series

Several Child / Youth Bibles that tell the stories of Jesus death and resurrection.

Look for these and other materials on the Library table upstairs, or in the library.

The most amazing, most important, and most awesome (in the very serious meaning of that word) event happened a little over two thousand years ago. Just as it is impossible to overstate the importance of Jesus' life and Jesus' death, all for us, it is also impossible to fully grasp the depth of love and grace poured out over the world. But that shouldn't keep us from trying.

The church library has a variety of resources to deepen our thoughts, awaken our hearts to gratitude and love for God.

Welcome New Staff Member
AMANDA WINGERTER
Webmaster Extraordinaire

Amanda Wingerter has been the master of "all things MUMC website" since 2013. [If you haven't already done so, take a few minutes to check out our awesome website at www.murphysboroumc.com.] In 2014 she began developing the creative pre-service announcement slides we enjoy weekly. She also funnels promotion requests to individuals for inclusion in the weekly bulletin, Compass and worship leader announcements and serves on the Publicity & Promotions Team. In January the church was able to bring Amanda onboard as a part-time staff member. At that time she added to her long list of things to do graphic arts design for special projects and events. So while her official job title is "Webmaster," Amanda is so much more. She serves as a volunteer in Sunday School and other youth programs.

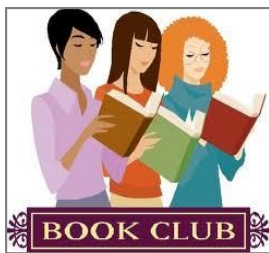

Beyond all you may be learning about Amanda's mostly behind-the-scenes handiwork in her home church, do you also know that she possesses a Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering/minor in Mathematics and a Master's degree in Environmental Engineering? Or how about this: she loves to spend any spare time quilting, reading, and studying Spanish! El Señor te ha bendecido, Amanda! [Translation: The Lord has blessed you, Amanda!]

Amanda finds time to share her blessings by teaching kids, kindergarten through college, in mathematics, SAT and ACT preparation, reading and other subjects at Sylvan Learning Center in Carterville.

Amanda is a daughter to MUMC congregation members Ron and Clara Kiser, wife to Brant, and mommy to Logan and Abigail.

MUMC
Saturday Morning

Saturday Book Club members love their January meeting! During the other months, we all read the same book and discuss it at our meeting. In January, we all read different books and then tell our fellow book lovers about them. We never know what books we will hear about in January, and this year's picks were a surprise—our book choices through the year are usually fiction, yet this month every single book was non-fiction. Here are this year's January picks—hope you find one you too would like to read.

The Zookeeper's Wife by Diane Ackerman
Read by: Emily Hargraves

This book is based upon journals of Antonina Zabinski, who, along with her zookeeper husband helped to hide Jewish refugees during Nazi occupied Warsaw, Poland. Although it is a fascinating true story, the book was hard to follow- with very little connection felt between the reader and any of the characters.

Wishful Drinking by Carrie Fisher
Read by: MaryAnn Hinchcliff

An autobiography written after electroshock therapy. Finding herself again and reminiscing about growing up in Hollywood with celebrity parents.

Nights in Tents: On the Front Lines of the Occupy Movement
by Laura Love
Read by: Gaye Auxier

Acclaimed musician Laura Love writes about the year she spent participating in the occupy movement and how she used resources she had to help people make change.

My Family and Other Animals by Gerald Durrell
Read by: Mary Ellen Brown

A true story based on the Durrell family's relocation from England to Corfu. Describes the natural history of the island but also his family and all of their wild experiences when living in Corfu. Also, a series on Masterpiece Theater.

Capital Dames by Cokie Roberts
Read by: Susan Patterson

Capital Dames is about the women of Washington D.C. leading up to and during the Civil War, and a little bit afterwards. Roberts is able to give observations from these women using letters, notes, journals, newspapers, and also just historical accounts to give the flavor of the atmosphere. Some of these women had very strong opinions and played roles in politics in their own way, seeking to have influence over various matters. One of the most interesting stories is about Rose Greenhow, who acted boldly and smartly as a spy for the Confederacy.

Join the discussion on The Bear and the Nightingale
by Katherine Arden
Saturday, March 18th at 10:15 am

At the edge of the Russian wilderness, winter lasts most of the year and the snowdrifts grow taller than houses. But Vasilisa doesn't mind—she spends the winter nights huddled around the embers of a fire with her beloved siblings, listening to her nurse's fairy tales. Above all, she loves the chilling story of Frost, the blue-eyed winter demon, who appears in the frigid night to claim unwary souls. Wise Russians fear him, her nurse says, and honor the spirits of house and yard and forest that protect their homes from evil.

After Vasilisa's mother dies, her father goes to Moscow and brings home a new wife. Fiercely devoted, city-bred, Vasilisa's new stepmother forbids her family from honoring the household spirits. The family acquiesces, but Vasilisa is frightened, sensing that more hinges upon their rituals than anyone knows.

And indeed, crops begin to fail, evil creatures of the forest creep nearer, and misfortune stalks the village. All the while, Vasilisa's stepmother grows ever harsher in her determination to groom her rebellious stepdaughter for either marriage or confinement in a convent.

As danger circles, Vasilisa must defy even the people she loves and call on dangerous gifts she has long concealed—this, in order to protect her family from a threat that seems to have stepped from her nurse's most frightening tales.

LAST SUNDAY OF EVERY MONTH

The Agape House ministry at DeUMC continues to be the heart of what we are doing with the merger project. Attendance is increasing, relationships are strengthening, and commitment is deepening. Watching God work through this ministry is one of the most precious things I have ever been a part of. I am humbled by His invitation to participate in showing His love to these children and youth. I encourage you to come some Wednesday night and witness what is happening at the DeUMC site. The work is a bit messy, but the blessings are straight from heaven.

40 Days of Prayer

During Lent, the MUMC congregation is being asked to commit to praying for the DeUMC site. Prayer calendars were passed out during the February 26 worship services. If you did not get one and would like to have one, it is not too late! Stop by the church office and pick one up for yourself and join others in 40 Days of Prayer. In addition to the prayer calendar, two prayer services will be held at the DeUMC site on March 11 and April 1 at 12:30 pm. Please consider joining us for one or both of these prayer services.

Decisions are currently being made on:

- Improving the sound system in the sanctuary
- Updating the lighting in the sanctuary, making it possible to dim the lights when videos are used
- Applying a fresh coat of paint throughout the church

Office Volunteers

The willing hands of MUMC’s office volunteers play a crucial role in the life of the church. Have you ever wondered how those calendars appear outside the classrooms every week, with their eye-catching graphics, or who sends the postcards for UMM every month, or where all those prayer cards come from for sharing “Joys and Concerns” on Sunday? Probably not – because you just assume “someone” gets these things done!

In many cases, that “someone” is one of the team of dedicated volunteers who donated over 940 hours of office work in 2016.

One major responsibility of the office volunteers is their work preparing for Sunday services, and processing information after services. Producing the bulletin and attendance sheets is done by Nancy Vallino, who works closely with church

Debbie Chapman with children’s clipboards

secretary Deb Severa to pull names and dates and events from a multitude of sources in support of the many activities offered at MUMC. Three of the Holy Folders rotate weeks for taking the bulletins to the church and putting attendance sheets into the attendance pads. Sally Moutardier, and in her absence Debbie Chapman, conduct pew checks on Friday mornings, making sure there are Prayer Request and Visitor cards available, along with offering envelopes and children’s worship guide cards. They also take the Sunday School attendance cards and envelopes around to the classrooms, along with the meeting room calendars that appear throughout the building. Debbie also sees to the children’s activity clipboards each week, and keeps the Sunday School attendance count up to date. And let’s not forget the huge task of entering the attendance and signups from two worship services every Sunday, which is done by Sandy Lanzi. Sandy stays after Praise Service to do this entry and send out the reports for all those signups.

Nancy Vallino preparing weekly bulletin

Creating the weekly calendar posted throughout the church is often done by Clara Kiser, who also created the Children’s Guide to Worship booklet on the activity clipboards and the related pew card.

Among the biggest responsibilities the volunteers carry is preparing this monthly Compass newsletter. The design and layout are done by a volunteer (currently Jennifer O’Donnell, and before her Paula Chapa). This is a skilled task, requiring knowledge of desktop publishing and a good eye for attractive page presentation, not to mention a flare for writing and an eye for detail. The church secretary helps assemble content and usually does the printing, then turns the stacks of paper over to the Holy Folders. This loyal group meets the last Wednesday of every month to fold, tape and label over 300 newsletters. There’s even a volunteer who coordinates getting the group together every month, and for special projects as needed.

There are plenty of other small tasks the volunteers help out with – mailings, answering the phone and doors at the church office, creating special handouts, tracking information in the office’s many spreadsheets, and whatever else their talents and willingness to serve the church can accomplish.

We often have need for additional office volunteers, with or without prior office experience or computer skills. Call the office at 618-687-2317 or email us at murphysboroumc@gmail.com if you would like more information.
