Over the last few years I have looked forward to September and getting to participate in the Adult Mission trip. I have thought a lot about this experience over the years and I am never quite sure what makes it so powerful for me. Like most things in life, I am sure it is not one thing but a unique combination of things. Being away from my normal routine for a few days, working together to serve others, listening to others express how they are seeing and experiencing God, all these things and more contribute to the power of the week.

I know mission trips are not for everyone but for some of us they are an important step in our spiritual growth: another step on our trail. Wesley, as he talked about the Means of Grace (how we get to know God and grow close to him), talked about service as an important part of our faith journey. Somehow each of us needs to find important ways to serve those around us. There are endless ways to perform this service. For me, going on an annual mission trip is one of them and might be for you as well.

See you in worship,
 Larry

Apple Festival Parade

09/16/17

Downtown Murphysboro

While this is not our first year to participate in the Apple Festival grand parade, it is the first year we have done so under the Cross & Flame Ministries' name. We have started collecting candy for the parade, but now we need people to walk along side the church bus and hand that candy out. We would love to have people from both of our sites walking the parade route together. Anyone interested in participating (walking the whole length or even part of the route) can sign up using the attendance registration pads on Sunday, September 3rd and 10th or by contacting Lacey Brown at mumcministries@gmail.com.

So tie on your walking shoes, wear any church shirt you may have, and help us celebrate and share what Cross and Flame Ministries has to offer!

The 2017 Yard Sale was a huge success!

Thanks so much to all those who worked in this sale and to those who donated items to sell.

From the proceeds of this sale, donations of $250 are being sent to each of the four Murphysboro public schools and $250 to the Jesus El Senor ministry in Cobden. The items that did not sell were taken to Pregnancy Matters in Carbondale, the Nursing and Rehab Center in Cobden, and the Salvation Army facility in DuQuoin.

We were unable to display fall and winter clothing this year due to lack of space. Later in October we will have a WINTER SALE specifically for these items and will accept additional fall/winter items. Watch the Compass for details! The proceeds from the winter sale are designated for the Murphysboro Food Pantry. If you have questions please call Lynn Pierson, 684-3601.

We have an abundance of hangers; contact Lynn Pierson with your request.

Again, thanks for making it possible to raise a little over $3,000 for mission projects.

The Library Corner: Listening to God

Pastor Larry's sermon on August 20th was called "When God Speaks" and was based on Jeremiah 1:4 "The word of the Lord came to me, saying . . ."

We know that there are many ways God can speak into our lives. Learning to look and listen for those ways comes to us as both a challenge and an invitation. More than one book in our library addresses that invitation and challenge. Here are several:

Listen: Finding God in the Story of Your Life by Keri Wyatt Kent. Kent divides her book into three parts. Part I is about listening to our own lives. She says: "I believe God speaks to us about our lives through our joys, our pain, our longing, and our awareness of them will help us understand who God is and whom he has made us to be—what our life is 'truly about'." (p. 8)

Part II of Kent's book is about listening to others, and how God can work with that effort in ways that helps both the other and one's self—and how both can meet God in that listening.

Part III of her book is called "Listening Practices." Kent discusses listening in silence, listening through Scripture, and listening in prayer, all with the goal of opening up space for God in our lives.

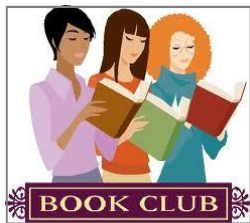

The Joy of Listening to God: Hearing the Many Ways God Speaks to Us by Joyce Huggett. Huggett is an English author who, like most of us, spent her prayer time sharing her concerns with God. Then she found a whole new dimension of prayer as she began to learn to be quiet before God. In this book she shares her life and her experiences with us as she discusses how we too can prepare ourselves to hear God speak.

Discerning the Voice of God: How to Recognize When God Speaks by Priscilla Shirer. Shirer says that she "sat in many prayer meetings where passionate believers shared stirring encounters with God's voice while my own soul was filled with overwhelming confusion. How did these saints know God was speaking?" (p. 5 of participant book).

She decided that although she believed God spoke, she was not going to disappoint herself by thinking he would speak to her. And that's how it was she relates, until the day "God spoke personally and intimately to me." This is a six-session DVD study and workbook to help individuals anticipate that God will speak to them and learn to recognize his voice. While it is set up for a group study, it can be used by individuals as well. One of the good features of her study is the quotes from others about their experiences in listening for and discerning God's voice. Shirer also explains "this study cannot give a formula by which you can discern His voice with 100 percent accuracy. As you practice discerning, know God graciously allows our errors to be the best teacher in hearing correctly in the future." (p. 5)

You will find these materials and others on the library table upstairs and in the church library in Room 110 downstairs.

The Persian Pickle Club

by Sandra Dallas

Saturday, September 9th at 10:15 am

Library, Rm 110

It is the 1930s, and hard times have hit Harveyville, Kansas, where the crops are burning up, and there is not a job to be found. For Queenie Bean, a young farm wife, a highlight of each week is the gathering of the Persian Pickle Club, a group of local ladies dedicated to improving their minds, exchanging gossip, and putting their quilting skills to good use. When a new member of the club stirs up a dark secret, the women must band together to support and protect one another. In her magical, memorable novel, Sandra Dallas explores the ties that unite women through good times and bad.

Caring For Kids!

A few years ago, we began a large-scale outreach project aimed at helping the children of Murphysboro. While we had been collecting school supplies for several years, it was time to go a step further and be intentional with this ministry. Our schools and students had needs that went beyond crayons, pencils and glue sticks – they needed easily accessible money. So July became our Caring for Kids month where we collected school supplies, Wal-Mart gift cards and cash for our grade school social workers. Over the years, we have added a few items here and there, but our focus stayed on our grade-school aged children. But as any parent will tell you, our children don't stop being our babies and needing us once they get older. As we found more places offering school supply support for children, we saw an opportunity to explore the needs of our older youth in middle school and high school. When we asked the middle school and high school social workers what was needed most, the response from the social workers was eye-opening; the overwhelming request was for personal hygiene products. This year's Caring for Kids request list was long and varied, and let's face it, not very fun. And with such a variety of items, we did not see an immense stockpile of any one thing taking over the Sanctuary. But what we did see was a congregation whose eyes were opened to the reality of what some of our youth face, and that accepted the challenge to help. We thank all who gave to the Caring for Kids collection and for all who continue to pray for our children and youth each day.

MUMC youth will once again support Operation Christmas Child. Their mission is to provide partners around the world with shoeboxes filled with small toys, hygiene items, and school supplies as a means of reaching out to children with the good news of Jesus Christ. These boxes will be shipped outside the U.S. to children affected by war, poverty, natural disaster, famine, and disease; and to children living on Native American reservations in the U.S.

By Oct. 8, please consider donating shoes boxes, wrapping paper, personal care items such as brushes or bar soap; clothing and accessories such as socks, sunglasses or tote bags; crafts such as school supplies, coloring books, play dough or stickers; and toys such as a slinky, puzzle, card game, or yo-yo. Please do not donate liquids, candies, or medicines. Each box costs $9 to ship, so monetary donations are needed as well.

Thank you for supporting our youth's effort to help make disciples for Christ. For more information contact: Laurie Nehring, 618-303-2777, nehringsfarm@hotmail.com.

Agape House welcomes youth for fellowship, study, and a light meal every Wednesday from 5:30 - 7:30 pm.

Agape House is a ministry of DeSoto United Methodist Church.

...because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.
Philippians 1:5-6

Since the mid-90's this congregation has been involved in building upgrades and improvements. Over the years almost $2M has been borrowed, spent, and paid off which is really a phenomenal record of financial commitment and dedication. However, almost all of that work was focused on the oldest part of the church with very little done to the Educational Wing built in the late 60's and now over 50 years old.

This next capital campaign entitled "LET'S FINISH WHAT WE STARTED" (LFWWS) (spanning 2018-2019) will focus on much needed improvements and upgrades to the Educational Wing. LFWWS will bring balance to our work and draws us closer to completion of work undertaken 15 years ago.

Phase I of the LFWWS campaign for the most part consists of projects functional in nature:

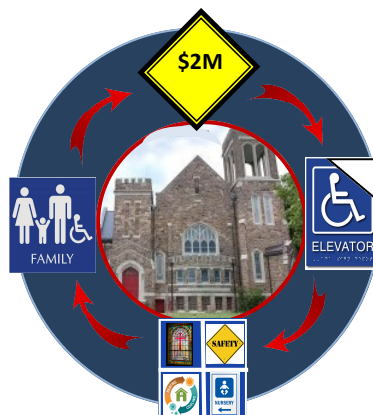

- ◆ New, modern and more efficient heating and cooling system to include ceiling insulation
- ◆ New windows and/or additional exterior window coverings
- ◆ Relocated, larger and more functional Nursery
- ◆ New range hood/fire suppression system in the kitchen
- ◆ Upgrade of the restroom off the Fellowship Hall to be modern and fully handicap accessible

Clearly, the projects itemized above are not fancy options. Rather, they are basic necessities, some of which are long overdue. Collectively, these improvements will impact in a very positive way the potential of our largest ministry tool: OUR BUILDING.

In order to complete this work we need to do nothing more than what we have all been doing for many years—personally seeking God's guidance and direction about what part of this large project belongs to me to support. In the past no one person has paid for the whole project, and I doubt they will this time. It will be our church coming together as a family to jointly support the work we have agreed needs to be done.

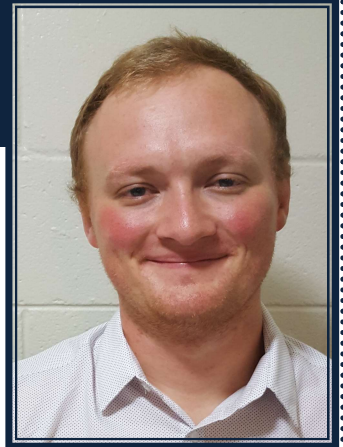

We have prepared a booklet that describes the work to be done in the Phase 1 project. Contact the church office if you would like one sent to you. Please begin to consider the part God is asking you to play. Pledge cards will be available at the North and Southeast entrances to the Sanctuary from Sept 3 - Sept 10, and will be collected on Sept 17. LET'S FINISH WHAT WE STARTED!

Pastor Larry A. Gilbert

NOTES ABOUT OUR NEW CHOIR DIRECTOR

Just a few notes about our new Choir Director, Joel Kirby . . .

Joel's surname may be familiar to you. As a matter of fact, he is married to our incredibly talented organist/accompanist, Jenny Choo Kirby. You may also recognize Joel for having played trumpet or sung tenor in our choir on occasions. He often worships with us at Traditional Service.

Joel is an accomplished educator and musician. He studied music at Truman State University, Kirksville, MO, where he earned both a bachelor's degree and a master's degree (2015) in General Concentration. He is qualified to teach choir, band/wind symphony, trumpet, beginning guitar, marching band, and a myriad of other courses. Joel is a highly regarded trumpet performer with experience in symphony, jazz ensembles, and jazz combos settings.

Since earning his graduate degree, Joel has been teaching 6th grade music at Marion Junior High School. No stranger to the United Methodist Church, he served as Choir Director, Grace UMC, Carbondale (2015-2016), Grace Camp Director (Music and Bible Camp) in July of 2015 and has sung bass in their choir.

Church family, take a minute to welcome Joel. Better still, embrace him as a beloved member of our Church family. By his own testimony, he is honored to serve God and our congregation. His hope is to enhance our worship experience. Such selfless goals should be music to our ears!

Staff Parish Relations Committee

We need candy and small toys!

It is time to start preparing for parades and Trunk-or-Treats at both our Murphysboro and DeSoto church sites. Collection bins will be available at both churches starting Sunday, August 13 thru Sunday, October 29. With two parades and two separate Trunk-or-Treats our volunteers could really use help from the congregation. Watch for sales, swing through the candy aisle - often, and help us add something a little sweet to our outreach opportunities this fall.

Besides candy and small trinkets, monetary donations will be accepted. Just include the word "Candy" on the memo line of your check or the other line of the offering envelope.

Coming in OCTOBER: HALF TRUTHS

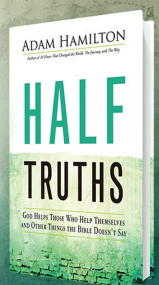

This sermon series will use Adam Hamilton's Half Truths book as a guide. They are simple phrases. They sound Christian - like something you might find in the Bible. We've all heard these words. Maybe we've said them. They capture some element of truth, yet they miss the point in important ways.

Come and learn why these are called Half Truths and why we should avoid them in ourselves and question them in others.
