FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

On Wednesday, February 18th, Christians around the world will begin the season of Lent. This tradition, in one form or another, has existed almost from the beginning of the Christian church. For thousands of years, the followers of Jesus have used the days before the celebration of Easter to prepare our hearts and lives for the joy of our risen Lord.

Today the season of Lent consists of the 40 days before Easter, not counting the Sundays, which means it always begins on a Wednesday. This Wednesday is called Ash Wednesday, because for over 1,000 years Christians have used the symbol of ashes on this day to remember the practice of penance which is central in the Lenten season.

The practice of fasting for Lent goes back to the earliest times and has been observed in many ways and forms over the years. Today this spiritual discipline is still widely practiced, and many members of our congregation will observe some form of Lenten fast.

Lent is just a wonderful opportunity to spend a little extra time turning our hearts and minds toward God. On the first Sunday of this year, I challenged each of us to do something in 2015 to draw ourselves closer to God. Lent offers many great opportunities to expand your spiritual practices for a brief time. You may want to add a Lenten fast for the first time, or attend one of several special Lent services. I encourage each of us to take a step toward God in this Lent season.

To God be the Glory,

Larry

THE LIBRARY CORNER: Do You Know an Author?

The answer to that question is probably yes! The library has several books that were written by church members or their friends or relatives, plus other books about southern Illinois history and families.

The latest author to be added to this local collection is Martin Twenhafel. He has written a book titled A Long Way from the Farm that recounts his memories about his time in the service during World War II. Martin's Army experience would take him from the farm to Chicago, then on to Fort Knox for training, and overseas to Germany and France right at the time the war with Germany ended. Martin shares stories and pictures with his readers in this short and interesting book. He writes:

"Serving in the United States Army from August 1944 to August 1946 was a transformational experience in my life. Undoubtedly it changed me as a person as much as it changed nations. The memories of this experience remain very real."

Judy Little, our organist and retired English professor and author, has presented the library with samples of her poetry, including two small books, Homewords and Prayers and Other Edges. Read the poem "Homewords: Thanksgiving Day" (p. 4) about the child Judy sitting on the floor reading a book to her little sister, while at the same time listening to the adult conversation around her, soaking up words, learning, already starting on her vocation. Or in Prayers, read "Gifts" (p. 29) her imagining of Jesus, saying farewell to his old life and his vocation of carpenter as he prepares to go see his cousin John the Baptist and enter his own ministry. In the poem, Jesus completes one last carpentry job: "His hands enjoying for the last time a skill / They would not use again."

Other local books in the library include personal journeys: Kalyn's Secret: Every Parent's Battle to Save Their Children by Lisa Renshaw Cherry and her daughter Kalyn, on the topic of a perilous time in Kalyn's life.

Confessions of a Prairie Pilgrim by Woodie White, a former UMC Bishop in Illinois. He writes eloquently about faith, everyday life, and spiritual truths he has learned.

David Valentine's Day by Dave Auxier and edited by Randy Auxier. Dave, who was named after his relative David Valentine Auxier, did extensive research and wrote a "biographical novella" about David, who served and died in the Civil War.

Although the UMC library does not have any of his books, Randy Auxier has either written or edited a number of books on philosophers and philosophy, at least one of which is offered at our local Barnes and Noble store. It is titled The Wizard of Oz and Philosophy: Wicked Wisdom of the West.

YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN THE SATURDAY MORNING

Saturday, February 21st at 10:15 am in the church library.

To discuss "Mrs. Lincoln's Dressmaker" by Jennifer Chiaverini.

In Mrs. Lincoln's Dressmaker, novelist Jennifer Chiaverini presents a stunning account of the friendship that blossomed between Mary Todd Lincoln and her seamstress, Elizabeth "Lizzie" Keckley, a former slave who gained her professional reputation in Washington, D.C. by outfitting the city's elite. Keckley made history by sewing for First Lady Mary Todd Lincoln within the White House, a trusted witness to many private moments between the President and his wife, two of the most compelling figures in American history.

The book for MARCH is The Invention of Wings by Sue Monk Kid.

Finally, we have books centered on southern Illinois history and growing up in southern Illinois. We have the recently published America's Deadliest Twister, the Tri-State Tornado by Geoff Partlow. Other local books include Foothold on a Hillside: Memories of a Southern Illinoisan by Charles Caraway; Remembering Kincaid Creek by Ruby A. (Cochran) Buchholz-Epplin; How I Became Whatever It Is I Am by Ruth Brown Shafer, and a well-written book by Edgar Allen Imhoff, Always of Home, a southern Illinois childhood.

So, do you know an author? Probably so! You will find these books on the library table in the upstairs hall, and downstairs in the library.

UMM 2014 Annual Report

The United Methodist Men (UMM) is the official organization for men at the MUMC, the Annual Conference, and denominational levels. We meet the second Saturday of every month at 7:30 a.m. Yearly dues are $10. Volunteer breakfast "chefs" provide an assortment of delicious breakfasts including freshly baked casseroles, biscuit and gravy and eggs, pancakes, and other creative entrees. Those who volunteer to cook arrive about an hour before the 7:30 starting time. We have wanted to start off each meeting with a devotional but haven't succeeded to do so every month...but we will keep trying. This year our attendance averaged 11 per month. Some of the 2014 highlights were:

- ♦ Attended Berean Christian Church men's breakfast meeting and were shown pictures of a cruise to Italy. It was an excellent chance to socialize.
- ♦ Helped a fellow UMM member to paint inside his home in preparation for sale.
- ♦ Donated $150 to Coach Kill's Cancer Fund.
- ♦ The Main Event held in Nashville and sponsored by LifeWay was attended by 15 UMM. We were entertained by an interesting interview with former President George W. Bush. He responded to questions about his time in office and his faith. The conference was well attended and included music, interviews with former sport coaches, comedian, authors, pastors and others for whom their faith and relationships have defined their life. Next year the sites are Nashville, Kansas City, and Portland, Oregon.
- ♦ Provided two "feed the team" meals to Murphysboro football team. The second one, prior to a playoff game, included a spaghetti dinner put on with assistance provided by Wilma Westerfield, Sharon Graff, Lela Sternberg, and Joan Bastien.
- ♦ Held the 4th Annual Apple Pancake breakfast. Hospitality Committee and others helped with decorating and serving. After expenses, the Murphysboro Food Pantry and Camp Scholarship fund each received $691.04.
- ♦ Supported Cub Scout Pack 112 with $200 for official scout shirts and supplies.
- ♦ Arranged for Barry Hinson, men's Saluki Basketball coach, to come to MUMC to speak to the community about challenges for young people playing sports. Fellowship of Christian Athletes received $100 in Hinson's honor.
- ♦ Several UMM helped serve at the Women's Prayer Breakfast in May.
- ♦ There were several clean-up and fix-up projects around the church and the annex.
- ♦ Set up the Nativity Scene that Bob and Mimi Rice graciously donated to the church.

Not only did the UMM get involved as outlined above, but they also enjoyed fellowship with each other. President Jay Graff has asked for creative ideas for trips, projects, and any other meaningful community endeavors we determine helpful and needed.

As Pastor Larry mentioned in a recent church message, it would be great if every one of our church members would commit to just one (1) new ministry in 2015. For the men of our church, committing to joining the UMM is something you may consider!
