WEEKLY BULLETIN

DEADLINE

is Wednesday
at 10:00 a.m.

Greetings to all in Christ Jesus!

In many churches, both pastors and congregants alike dread stewardship season...Too often the focus of stewardship campaigns is strictly on finances, more giving and fiscal responsibility. If it is all about money, no wonder we all get nervous around November!

But we steward much more than just our financial assets. In the words of the Good News Translation, Romans 12:1 says, "So then, my friends, because of God's great mercy to us I appeal to you: Offer yourselves as a living sacrifice to God, dedicated to his service and pleasing to him. This is the true worship that you should offer."

God calls us to offer our whole selves to Him and to be fully dedicated to His service in all things.

With that in mind this year your pledge card (which you will be receiving in a couple of weeks) will have a tear-off for you to keep with you all month, bring to church each Sunday and take any notes on as the Spirit leads you. Use it as a kind of prayer journal as each week we discuss our dedication to the Lord through our PRAYERS, PRESENCE, GIFTS, SERVICE, and WITNESS.

On the 4th Sunday of November (the 24th), we will all bring the pledge card to the front in worship and gift it to the Lord. All commitments that you make to Jesus will be completely confidential (except for one designated person who will discreetly tabulate the data we receive)! You will keep your journal tear off with you, possibly in your Bible all year if desired!

This year let's steward our whole selves!

In His service,
Pastor Danny Motta

VOLUNTEERS
A Work of Heart!

This Months Volunteer spotlight is on Mrs. Trina Eaton.

Trina gives willingly of herself to many ministries of Murphysboro United Methodist Church, including Feeder of the Pack, Little Free Library, Trunk or Treat and VBS. Her favorite, however, is the "My Own Bookcase" project, which both she and Bob work on together. Trina shares that each volunteer opportunity she takes part in touches her heart in some specific manner. She emphasizes her passion about the importance of children having opportunities to read; sharing that both she and Bob have blessed their grandchildren with many books and enjoy reading to them as often as they can. Spending her free time with her grandchildren is, after all, a cherished favorite pastime. This project allows her to share that joy outside her family.

As with any project, ensuring every part of the process and the presentation ceremony is organized can be a LOT of work that can be both challenging and rewarding at the same time. Work won't deter the Eaton's, though! Trina admits that among other things, this project has helped to make her more aware of others' needs and the responsibility we have as Christians to help in every way we can. She adds that it is not duty, but rather adhering to our mission to be and to make followers for Jesus Christ. Church members are not just talking about what needs to be done, they are doing work that demonstrates the love of Jesus to our community and the families within it.

For Trina, what brings it all home is the gift of seeing the looks on the faces of the children who receive a bag of books and their own bookcase. Children who otherwise may not be so fortunate as to have books to call their own. Children of Jesus. Any doubt of the value of this project is erased at that moment and it becomes PRICELESS!

Thank you, Trina, for your passion to this and the many projects you take part in. You are truly a "Work of Heart".

HEALTHY HABITS

This month we are excited about our upcoming Health and Safety Fair on Sunday, Oct. 27 from 12-2:30 PM.

Everyone is invited to enjoy chicken and dumplings and then browse the exhibits provided by several local healthcare providers and social service agencies.

The following services and information will be provided:

- Flu and Tetanus vaccinations (Over age 17. Please bring ID and insurance, Medicare or Medicaid card)
- Alzheimer's information
- Cholesterol and Blood Sugar Screening (Over age 17. No fasting required)
- Diabetes Education
- Bike and Fire Safety
- Joint Health
- Womens' Health
- Nutrition
- Sr. Citizen Services
- Cancer Survivor Support
- Counseling Services
- Kids' Games
- Healthy Snacks

We are still talking to other agencies so there be more presenters. Come and enjoy lunch with friends and families and learn how to take better care of the bodies that God has given us and our families. God has blessed us with many local agencies. Now He is providing us with an opportunity to learn more about them.

See you Oct. 27!

The Library Corner: Books & Quotes

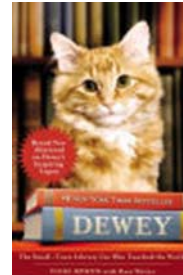

Can you tell a book by it’s cover? Doubtful, but maybe! How about telling a book by a quote from its pages? That’s still a maybe, but you have a better chance! Give it a try below, with several new books in the church library.

From Lysa Terkeurst of Proverbs 31 Ministries: It’s Not Supposed to Be This Way: finding unexpected strength when disappointment leaves you shattered Though we can’t predict or control or demand the outcome of our circumstances, we can know with great certainty we will be okay. Better than okay. Better than normal. We will be victorious because Jesus is victorious (1 Corinthians 15:57) And victorious people were never meant to settle for normal...But what if victory is only in part how things turn out? What if a bigger part of being victorious is how well we live today? This hour. This minute. (p. xiv)

From Roma Downey, actress and producer, and star of “Touched by an Angel: Box of Butterflies: Discovering the unexpected blessings all around us: In these pages I’ll share songs and prayers and poems that have kept me going in both the sunshine and the shadows of my life. I’ll share glimpses of God that I have found in written word, or a particular image. And I pray that as you read these words you may remember, you may awaken, you may feel God’s gentle presence. And that then you may go forward, knowing that the greatest Shepherd, Companion, and Father is always by your side. (p. 11)

From William H. Willimon in United Methodist Beliefs: A Brief Introduction: John Wesley praised theology that was “practical,” that is, belief put into practice, belief in motion. Doctrine ought to be performed as a sign of our faith in a Lord who invited and commanded, “Follow me.” . . . These beliefs are what United Methodists think you need in order to walk with Jesus, a means of knowing that you are walking with the God whose name is Trinity rather than some godlet of your own sweet concoction. . . . Our God came to us as a person with a face, with a name – Jesus the Christ. (p. xv)

Hope you were interested in the quotes above, and in the books they represent. And also, just in case we really CAN judge a book by it’s cover, here are a few book covers from the library, in honor of the Blessing of the Animals to take place on October 6th. These books and others about our animal friends are in the church library. Come and Read!

Where'd You Go, Bernadette
by Maria Semple

Bernadette Fox has vanished. When her daughter Bee claims a family trip to Antarctica as a reward for perfect grades, Bernadette, a fiercely intelligent shut-in, throws herself into preparations for the trip. But worn down by years of trying to live the Seattle life she never wanted, Ms. Fox is on the brink of a meltdown. And after a school fundraiser goes disastrously awry at her hands, she disappears, leaving her family to pick up the pieces--which is exactly what Bee does, weaving together an elaborate web of emails, invoices, and school memos that reveals a secret past Bernadette has been hiding for decades. Where'd You Go Bernadette is an ingenious and unabashedly entertaining novel about a family coming to terms with who they are and the power of a daughter's love for her mother.

The Blessing of the Animals is co-hosted by the Murphysboro United Methodist Church and St. Francis Community Animal Rescue and Education. This is a free event for pets and their people. Each animal will receive an individual blessing. All animals must be brought in carriers or on leashes. There will be treats for all, a free blessing gift, and a drawing for a free prize.

Our family sincerely appreciates the church and church family, and all the expressions of sympathy—the cards, the gifts, the flowers, the food, the wonderful funeral dinner, everyone who participated in the service, the visits, and the calls. We also greatly appreciate Pastor Dan, and the special service as well as all the time he spent with us. We could not have asked for more.

Anyone who knew Lowell knew how important his church was to him. He would have been pleased with the church's response.

WHAT ARE THE SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES UP TO?

Faithful Friends, a class for women of all ages with rotating leaders will be finishing up the DVD study by Bill Hybels, "Walk Across the Room" and will be starting Max Lucado's "How Happiness Happens." In a world searching for happiness, bestselling author Max Lucado provides a personal plan for a life filled with lasting and fulfilling joy, supported by Jesus' teaching and modern research.

Helping Hands, led by Donna Horniacek, is a traditional Bible Study Class for men and women. For Fall 2019 the lessons focus on God, what it means that we are created in God's image, and what it means to worship God alone. Unit 1: God, the Creator, takes students through texts that help discern what "Godness" is, and help develop the spiritual practice of mindfulness. Unit 2: In God's Image, focuses on the human condition and the spiritual practice of confession. Unit 3: Worship, unites around the theme "objects of worship," with objects meaning not worship aids, such as candles and paraments, but those things we place ahead of God, with a focus on deepening the spiritual practice of worship.

Passages, led by Randy Auxier, just started a new book/study. Stop Asking for Stones and Serpents: How the Way We Pray Can Block God's Blessings, by Janice Staab, PhD. Dr. Staab shines a light on some ways of praying that block God's blessings and love from being fully active in our lives. She examines in detail how the things we pray for (stones) and the methods we pray with (serpents) can distract us from God's will for our lives and keep us from receiving all God wants to share. Jan is a write, teacher, philosophical counselor, and life coach. After 15+ years as an academic philosopher and an elder in her church, she's committed to having the conversations that matter with ourselves, others, and God.

Pathfinders, led by Michelle Parker-Clark, will be continuing with Breaking the Code: Understanding the Book of Revelation. A DVD study by biblical scholar Bruce Metzger.

Seekers, invite you to join them for Adam Hamilton's six-week journey as he travels to England, following the life of John Wesley and exploring his defining characteristics of a Wesleyan Christian. Wesley's story is our story. It defines our faith and it challenges us to rediscover our spiritual passion. Ken Cline will be the leader for this study.

Trailblazers, a class for young adults, has some exciting changes coming in the near future. Stay tuned for more information!

Minutes from the Special Charge Conference Meeting

that was held on Monday, September 16th

Monday, 6/19/2019, 7:00pm

Special Charge Conference

In attendance:

49 voting members

3 staff (not voting members)

3 children (not voting members)

Pastor Danny Motta introduced the meeting, explaining that we are meeting as approved by our District Superintendent, Rev. Stan Irvin.

Perry Patterson opened the meeting with prayer.

Pastor Danny led the attendees in the opening hymn, How Great Thou Art.

Pastor Danny explained why we are gathered – to re-form the Church Council in order to centralize and focus our overall church mission, vision, and strategy, to enhance good order, and to encourage transparency within our church leadership structure.

Pastor Motta reviewed the Conference structure, starting with General Conference, then Jurisdictional Conference, Annual Conference, Charge Conference, and Church Council. He also reviewed the United Methodist Church of Murphysboro hierarchy, with God at the top, followed by the Cabinet (Bishop/District Superintendents), the Church Council, and Standing Committees. Pastor Danny emphasized that he and the staff are in supporting roles – with responsibilities, but not as controlling decision makers.

The two-fold mandate of the Church Council will be:

- 1) To determine our mission (why do we exist?), vision (where are we going?), and strategy (how do we get there?).
- 2) To encourage and support our Ministry Teams and Committees.

We will be voting in only the Discipline-mandated representatives to the Church Council, as interim representatives, until such time as they can be officially voted in at the Annual Charge Conference. The Church Council itself will vote on what other chairs are needed, with the Nominating Committee presenting their recommendations for the positions.

Todd Lirely asked how many representatives will be expected to make up the council. Pastor Motta estimated about 15, but stressed that the Council itself will decide how many are needed.

Rick Pierson asked if we (the Charge Conference attendees) need to vote to reinstate Church Council before nominating and voting on interim chairs. Pastor Motta responded that we are not required to do that, but we can.

Rick also asked why/how the Church Council was disbanded and asked if we need to create/vote on any directive to prevent the Church Council from being disbanded again. Pastor Motta replied that he has found no clear answer as to why/how the disbanding happened, but if we follow the Discipline for Church Council requirements, we have (in the Discipline) the appropriate directive.

A motion was made by Rick Pierson to reinstate the Church Council.
Richard Tierney seconded.

Motion passed with no opposing votes.

Each of the following council representatives was voted on (individually).
Each received no opposing votes.

- Interim Chair – Shannon Green
- Interim Recording Secretary – Gaye Auxier
- Interim Lay Leader/Annual Conference Delegate – Nancy Fager
- Interim Staff Parish Relations –Perry Patterson
- Interim Finance – Bob Eaton
- Interim Board of Trustees – Gene Schwebel
- Interim Treasurer – Christine Nolan
- Interim United Methodist Men – Richard Tierney
- Interim Women’s Ministry – Rosie Wece
- Interim Young Adult Representative – Lee Stewart
- Interim Youth Representative – Alex Baughman

The first Church Council meeting will be November 4th, 7:00pm, in the Sanctuary.

Annual Charge Conference will be November 14th, 6:00pm, at Grace United Methodist Church (3 churches are having Annual Charge Conference together).

Pastor Motta closed the meeting with prayer.
Respectfully submitted,
Gaye C. Auxier
Interim Recording Secretary

Thank You

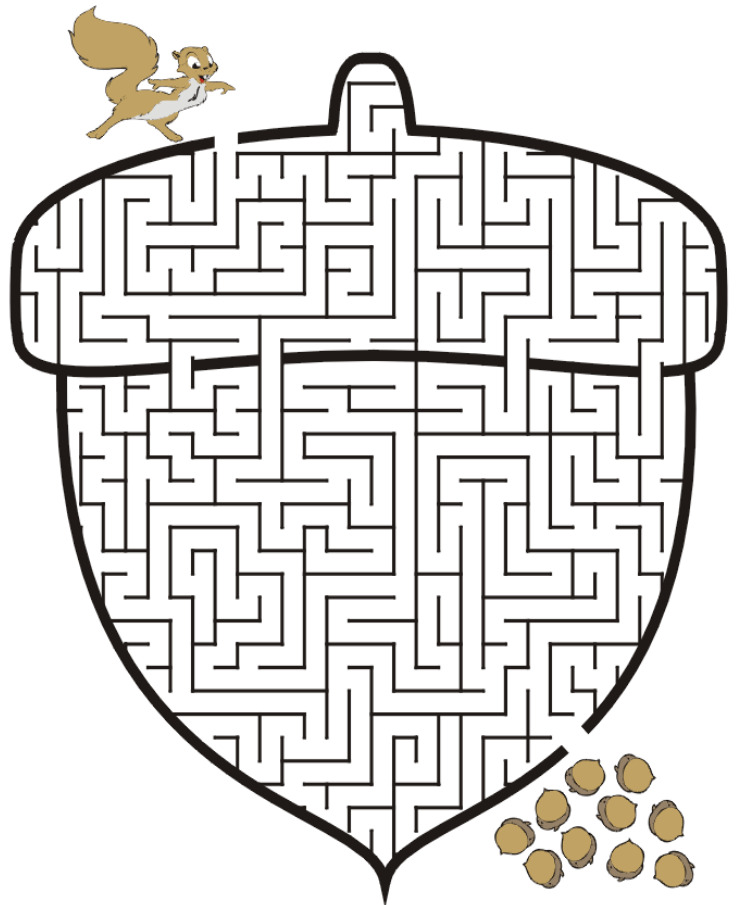

To all who helped in anyway with the MUMC Float & give-a-ways in the Apple Festival Parade this year. Our float won 2nd Place in the Churches & Individuals division. Which is great considering we counted at least 5 other churches in the parade this year. Our parade participants handed out Pencils, Bracelets, Christion Booklets & Candy all with information about our church attached. We had a great showing. Once again thank you !
