

MARTY MCMICHAEL, B.A., M.S., MDiv
Executive Pastor

Marty Mc Michael is husband to Veronica McMichael and father to their 5 children: Kelia, Shani, Nadia, Marty Jr. and Victor. Marty has been in ministry since 1994 and began at Salem Missionary Baptist Church in NYC as a Youth Leader. He came to Dayton, Ohio and served at Omega Baptist Church as the Ministry Coordinator until he and his wife transferred their membership to the United Methodist Church in 2011, serving as Licensed Local Pastors at Stillwater UMC. Marty completed his candidacy in 2016 and is an Ordained Elder in the United Methodist Church.

Marty Mc Michael has received his Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice from John Jay College of Criminal Justice in New York City. He has received his Master of Science from Walden University in Minneapolis Minnesota, where he majored in Industrial & Organizational Psychology. Marty also has an MDiv from United Theological Seminary where he now is a Lead Facilitator, teaching spiritual formation to prospective pastors, deacons, and other spiritual leaders.

He has worked in three United Methodists churches over the past 11 years, serving African American and White congregations. Marty has consistently helped each congregation realize their missional, organizational and/or spiritual goals. He has maintained at all times a more conservative approach to ministry and has made room for all God's people to come to saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Marty Mc Michael's professional highlights include more than 20 years of management and operations of social services programs under the auspices of private and city agencies. As a Senior Manager of these programs, he has successfully developed and organized programs and staff. Marty has consulted with prominent academic institutions like Columbia University in New York City and coached senior managers in refining and improving their skills and abilities. Marty has written and designed the book "Professional Development & Its Practical Applications" and the "Soft Skills Assessment Tool" (SSAT) which measures interpersonal behavioral skills.
