

VERONICA MCMICHAEL

Pastor Veronica Anderson –McMichael was born in New York City to Eddie and Carolyn Anderson. Her parents introduced her to church life and a respect for service to Christ. It was at the age of 16 that Veronica received her call to ministry, and she has been committed to kingdom building ever since.

She has an undergraduate degree in Organizational Management from Wright State University and is currently completing her Master of Divinity at United Theological Seminary. Veronica is happily married to Pastor Marty McMichael for 26 years and they are the honored parents of five Children, 3 girls and 2 boys.

Veronica has served at several churches over the course of her ministry in New York and in Dayton Ohio. She has served as, Associate Minister, Assistant Sunday School Superintendent, Kid's Church Director, Nurse Director, Youth Leader, Assistant Center Director and Co-Pastor. Veronica aspires to complete her degree in the months to come and looks forward to her next steps in ministry. Veronica believes in the transformative power of Christ and is committed to sharing those ideals and living into them. Veronica is a transformer and takes her mandate seriously, to go forth and make disciples. She believes that all things are possible through Christ.
